PREPARING TO BE A PRIEST.

How General Sherman Became Es-tranged From His Religious Son. The New York Sun says that among the Jesuit Scholastics who have just entered Georgetown University is Wm. Sherman, the eldest son of General Sherman, the eldest son of General W. T. Sherman. The young man, who is described as tall, slim and of a generally ascetle appearance, is making his final preparations for the priesthood. But a few years ago young Sherman was one of the gayest of the gay in this city. He was then a law student in Georgetown College and was a leader of his class. He was brilliant and dashing, but never a dude, General Sherman was naturally very

General Sherman was naturally very much attached to his promising son, who was, it is said, engaged to be married to a rich St. Louis lady as soon as he graduated. Nothing in his char-acter gave evidence of the great relig-ious fervor which has since marked his course. He had been reared a strict Catholic by Mrs Sherman, whose devotion to that church is so well

It was after a retreat which the Catholic students of Georgetown Col-lege made in 1878 that the change in the young man became apparent. The day after the retreat-a week spent in day after the retreat—a week spent in prayer, preaching and meditation—he went to Rev. Dr. Healy, the president of the cellege, and begged to be admitted into the Jesuit novitiate. He was refused outright, Dr. Healey thinking that it was ephemeral religious enthusiasm, and also keeping in his mind what vigorous thoughts General Sherman might have on the subject. But the young man had that tenacity of purpose which is one of the characteristics of the Sherman family. He refused to open another law book and appealed again and again to Dr. Healey. Finally he was told that he might hope. When he announced to his father that son declared that nothing could deter him from entering the priesthood. So they parted, and have not seen each his crankiness of late years is to be at-tributed to this source. Prior to 1878, he had exhibited little of that unruly temper which has since gotten him into so much trouble. It was though at one time that he was on the point of becoming a Catholic, but since 1878 nothing could induce him to enter a Catholic church.

> TAKEN FROM THE FLAMES. Iwo Men Rescued From the Fourth

Story of a Burning Building. Cries of "help!" were heard shortly after 2 o'clock this morning at the corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue. A crowd of people were soon attracted to the spot and it was discov-ered that the upper portion of Gilman's drug store, which is used as an annex to the American House, was a-fire. Two partially-dressed men were in the windows of the top story crying for help as best they could in their half-stifled condition.

The smoke was rolling out of the windows in dense clouds, and the crowd below feared that the men coatem-plated jumping below. "For God's sake, don't jump," yelled the people below.

Some delay in turning in an alarm increased the danger and the excite-ment, and the flames broke through the roof. Efforts to break open locked doors were futile and an engine arrived, but no relief could be afforded the sufferers until the truck arrived. The ladders were quickly thrown up and the two men were rescued. They were found to be Mr. J. W. Meeker of Baltimore and Charles Bain, the bake of the hotel. The Fire Department soon had the flames under control. The damage was about $1,000.

A Millionaire's Wedding. Mr. Addison Cammack of New York wa married to Miss Gertrude Hildreth of this city yesterday afternoon at three o'clock the ceremony being performed by Rev. Dr. Leonard at the residence of the bride's mether. Miss Hildreth is well known in high circles here, prominent rather for her intellectual attributes of mind and persona intellectual attributes of mind and personal graces than as being a society young lady. Mr. Cammack is a well known stock broker of New York and is said to be worth $5,000.000. After the ceremony yosterday the couple proceeded to Fort Monroe, where the boneymoon will be spent and then will proceed to Mr. Cammack's residence in New York.

Excursions to Battle Fields. Excursions to Battle Fields.

The ex-Union soldier organizations of this city are discussing a proposed excursion to the battle-fields of Antietam and South Mountain on May 16. The President will be invited, as well as all the generals and officers who took part in those battles. Another project is to celebrate the twenty-second anniversary of the approach of the Confederate army under General Early, July 12, 1864. The Confederates under General Early came as near as Fort Stevens, near Bladensburg, in Maryland, and there are alive quite a number of men who participated in the defence of the city. The celebration, if field, will be at Fort Stevens.

GRATITUDE.

Mrs. F. OATS, of Shumway, III., writes: "When one week, I could walk all over the door-yard, and I could get into a wagon and ride two miles to see my neighbors. I had not been able to walk out in the door-yard for six months. After using the 'Favorite Prescription' two weeks, I rode in a wagon ten miles; my neighbors were all surprised to see me up and going about and helping to do my housework, after dectoring with thirteen of the best physicians we could get—and the last one told my husband that I would never be able to do my housework any more. I am thankful to my God that I wrote to you, for I had suffered from 'Female Wenkness' until I had almost given up in despair."

TERRIBLE "For five or six years I had been badly troubled with formle weakness and terrible pains across the small of my back and pit of the stomach. Three bottles of Dr. Pierce's 'Favorite Prescription' acted like a charm, and cured me completely, to my great joy."

MARVELOUS BENEFITS.

"I wish, in this letter to express my gratitude for Mrs. Davis and myself for the great good which has been accomplished in her case by the use of your proprietary medicines. When site began to take them, in January last, she could not endure the least far, could walk but a very few steps at a time, and could stay up only about thirty minutes at a time. Now she not only sits up almost the entire day, but can walk around call on her neighbors, two and three blocks away, and not feel any injurious effects at all. When we consider that she had kept her bed the greater part of the time for four-ten months, and would lose repeatedly the advance she had made, her progress now seems marvelous. We had almost lost confidence in medical practitioners, and advertised remedical practicioners, and advertised remedical practicioners.

Many times women call upon their family physicians, one with dyspepsia, another with palpitation, another with backache, or nervousness, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all symptoms caused by some uterine disorder. While the physician is ignorant of the cause of suffering, he enourages his practice until large bills are made, when the suffering patient is no better, but probably worse for the delay, treatment, and other complications made. A proper medicine directed to the cause would perhaps have entirely removed the disease, thereby instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

Having exhausted the skill of three physicians, I was completely discouraged, and so weak I could with ment recommended in his 'Common Sense Medical Adviser.' I commenced to improve at once. In three months I was perfectly cured, and have had no trouble since. I wrote a letter to my family paper, briefly mentioning how my health had been my family paper, briefly mentioning how my health had been restored, and offering to send the full particulars to any one writing me for them, and inclosing a stamped envelope for reply. I have received over four hundred letters. In reply, I have described my case and the treatment used, and have earnestly advised them to 'do likewise.' From a great many I have received second letters of thanks, stating that they had commenced the use of 'Favorite Prescription,' had sent the $1.50 required for the 'Medical Adviser,' and had applied the local treatment so fully and plainly laid down therein, and were much better already."

DOCTOR'S Writes: "I had been under an eminent physician's care for eight months for what he called 'spinal disease.' I became worse during all this time, when, chancing to see a copy of Dr. Pierce's Medical Advisor at the residence Diseases.' I soon became convinced that my disease was a uterine affection, which, as you say, caused sympathetic backache, inward fever, nervousness, and general debility.
